R&H Restructuring welcomes Claire Loebell
as a Director in the Cayman office

May 2019 - R&H Restructuring is pleased to announce that Claire Loebell has joined its senior management team as a Director in the Cayman Islands office.

Claire brings with her a wealth of experience having over 16 years of formal insolvency experience including liquidations, receiverships and administrations covering multiple jurisdictions.

Her experience has a particular focus on financial services and she has advised investor groups, investment managers, directors and other stakeholders on the wind down of fund structures in both contentious and non-contentious situations. Claire has regularly been appointed as a Liquidator by the Grand Court in the Cayman Islands.

Rawlinson & Hunter partner, Alan Milgate, commenting on Claire's appointment, "We are delighted to have Claire join the R&H Restructuring team, especially at this exciting time in the evolution of the group. She is a stand out due to the breadth of her expertise and her ability to perform at a high level in a broad range of practice areas. This, coupled with her excellent reputation and network, makes Claire a valuable addition to the R&H Restructuring team as we continue to grow the Rawlinson & Hunter Cayman Islands service offering."

R&H Restructuring, formerly RHW Caribbean, includes R&H Restructuring (Cayman) Ltd. and R&H Restructuring (BVI) Ltd., both affiliates of Rawlinson & Hunter in the Cayman Islands.

Commenting on her appointment, Claire added "I am very excited about the opportunity to join the R&H Restructuring team in Cayman. The depth of Rawlinson & Hunter's expertise, particularly in trusts and directorships, combined with the ability of the R&H Restructuring team to deliver on a wide range of flexible solutions really attracted me to the role. I am looking forward to contributing to the practice and delivering innovative solutions to structures in periods of dispute or wind down."

Claire's role will have her adding significant strength to the leadership of the team alongside appointment takers, in Cayman, Martin Trott and Chris Smith and, in the BVI, Nathan Mills and Owen Walker. The R&H Restructuring team now comprises 14 dedicated insolvency professionals, and has the support of Rawlinson & Hunter and the Nexia International network.
